THE GREATER TREASURE VALLEY AREA

Welcome to the heart of Idaho’s scenic beauty—The Greater Treasure Valley. This expansive region encompasses several cities, each with its own unique charm and character. At the core is Boise, the state’s bustling capital, known for its energetic downtown, extensive park system, and a thriving arts scene. Surrounding Boise are the cities of Meridian, Nampa, and Caldwell, forming a metropolitan area with plentiful amenities, shopping, and dining options.

To the northeast, Eagle offers a more laid-back atmosphere with luxury homes, golf courses, and access to the Boise River, ideal for those seeking a quieter retreat within close proximity to urban conveniences. Just south of Boise, Kuna appeals to those looking for a small-town feel with easy access to the great outdoors, including the nearby Snake River birds of prey area.

Further west, Star and Middleton present a more rural lifestyle with opportunities for agriculture and spacious, scenic living. Each city within The Greater Treasure Valley is linked by efficient transportation routes, ensuring that whether you’re traveling for work or leisure, you’re never too far from your destination.

WHAT WE LOVE ABOUT

BOISE

OUTDOOR RECREATION

The Treasure Valley is surrounded by natural beauty, offering abundant opportunities for outdoor activities. We love hiking in the foothills, exploring scenic trails, and taking advantage of nearby rivers for fishing, exploring along the greenbelt, and floating the river.

COMMUNITY CHARACTER

The Treasure Valley maintains a friendly and close-knit community atmosphere. Idahoans often appreciate the strong sense of community and the welcoming nature of their neighbors. You'll always find a friendly face.

CULTURAL EVENTS

Boise hosts a variety of cultural events, festivals, and local fairs throughout the year. These events provide opportunities for residents to come together, celebrate, and enjoy the vibrant local culture.

LOCAL FOOD SCENE

From farmers' markets to food truck parks to diverse dining options, the Treasure Valley is known for its thriving local food scene. Residents enjoy access to fresh, locally grown produce and a range of culinary experiences.

QUALITY OF LIFE

The Treasure Valley offers a high quality of life with a relatively low cost of living compared to some other parts of the country. This, coupled with a strong job market and good schools, makes it an attractive place for families.

BOISE'S URBAN AMENITIES

Boise, the capital city of Idaho located in the Treasure Valley, provides urban amenities without the congestion of larger cities. Residents appreciate the vibrant downtown, cultural institutions, and recreational opportunities Boise offers.

FOUR SEASONS

We enjoy experiencing all four seasons, from snowy winters, blooming springs, warm summers, and crisp autumns. Each season brings its own charm and a variety of outdoor activities, contributing to a well-rounded and enjoyable living experience.

PROXIMITY TO NATURE

The Treasure Valley is surrounded by natural wonders, including mountains, forests, and rivers. We value the easy access to outdoor adventures, whether it's a weekend camping trip or a day exploring scenic landscapes.

SENSE OF SAFETY

Many residents appreciate the overall sense of safety and security in the Treasure Valley. The area is known for its low crime rates and the feeling of being in a secure environment.

STRONG LOCAL ECONOMY

The area has experienced economic growth, and those living here appreciate the job opportunities and economic stability that come with it.

Beyond the Potato

TALK LIKE A LOCAL

Locals lovingly correct the common mispronunciation “BOY-zee” to “BOY-see,” reflecting pride in Boise, the City of Trees. This nickname, from the French word for “wooded,” highlights the area’s lush, tree-lined beauty.

Pronunciations can be tricky: Ustick Road is “You-stick,” Chinden Boulevard is “Chin-din” (from “Chinese garden,” honoring early settlers), and Kuna is pronounced “Q-na.”

COMMUNITY OF COURTESY

The Treasure Valley is characterized by its friendly and warm atmosphere, where manners, mutual respect, and kindness are deeply embedded in the community’s culture. This welcoming nature is expressed through everyday interactions like smiles, eye contact, holding doors, and friendly conversations, reinforcing the Valley’s reputation as being hospitable and congenial.

With growth comes a shared responsibility to preserve the environment by keeping cities clean, protecting wildlife, and safeguarding natural habitats to sustain Idaho’s quality of life.

TATER KINGS

Idaho isn’t just famous for potatoes; it’s the U.S. champion, producing a whopping one-third of the nation’s spuds. Talk about being a potato powerhouse!

TRANSIT TIPS

Driving culture is marked by courtesy and cooperation, evident by smooth merging and efficient roundabout use.

A car is recommended for Boise residents, especially outside the city, as Valley Regional Transit’s public transport may not cover all travel needs, especially outside of Boise city limits.

ALL ABOUT ROUNDABOUTS

In Boise’s roundabouts, yield to traffic already in the circle. When entering, choose the correct lane early: right lane for right turns or straight ahead, left lane for left turns or U-turns. The essentials:

Lane Choice: Select your lane before entering and stick to it throughout.

Yield: Yield to both pedestrians and oncoming traffic when entering and exiting the roundabout. Don’t stop once inside; incoming traffic should yield to you.

Caution and Speed: Slow down for safety, staying alert for pedestrians, unexpected lane changes, and large or emergency vehicles.

ZIPPERING 101: A QUICK OVERVIEW

The zipper merge, used correctly, counters the issues of early merging at “lane closed ahead” signs, which can cause traffic jams and frustration. Using both lanes fully until the merge point, then alternating turns to merge, much like a zipper’s teeth. This technique balances lane speeds, cuts traffic backup by up to 40%, and smooths out congestion at freeway interchanges, ensuring a fair and efficient flow for all lanes.

- Use both lanes until the merge point.
- Alternate turns merging for fairness and efficiency.

3. Respect the natural environment by cleaning up after yourself and packing out all trash.
4. Hot springs are popular, especially on weekends. If you're seeking solitude, visit early in the morning or on weekdays.
5. Dogs should not soak in the hot springs.
6. Bring essentials like a towel, water bottle, dry bag, and snacks.
